

Lakewest/Oak Cliff YMCA Child Care Financial Assistance Guidelines

Please see the following list of guidelines that will be used to determine eligibility for financial assistance.

Parents that have past due or delinquent fees for any YMCA program or membership will not be eligible to receive financial assistance.

Parents that have children participating in current programs must be current on program fees in order to apply for financial assistance.

Only persons with active YMCA memberships will be eligible to receive financial assistance.

Financial assistance applications and enrollment forms must be completed fully and all required income documentation must be verified before application is reviewed. Incomplete applications will not be reviewed.

Note: Program fees that become 2 weeks or more past due, financial assistance awarded at Lakewest/Oak Cliff will be in jeopardy.
